CLIENT SERVICES LEAD AT MEYLER CAMPBELL

CLIENT SERVICES LEAD AT MEYLER CAMPBELL

Meyler Campbell seeks to appoint a CLIENT SERVICES LEAD for UNLEASHED, our proven programme that helps organisations activate and embed the skills of coaching in their leaders. By enhancing the capabilities of their top leaders with better listening, better questioning, better insights, better relationships and better decision-making, clients drive more sustainable performance and greater engagement across their business.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CLIENT SERVICE LEAD

- Maintain and nurture successful relationships with existing Unleashed clients
- Help develop new clients for Unleashed by identifying target companies and the best approach to reach decision-makers and influencers
- Manage and continuously improve the processes and systems that ensure flawless delivery of Unleashed programmes
- Help to establish the platform that allows the Unleashed programme to scale in both the UK and internationally

IDEAL CREDENTIALS

- More than 2 years of work experience. Background less important than attitude and capacity to learn
- Problem solver, self-motivated and self-reliant. Innovative, finding and implementing new ways of doing things with natural curiosity
- Engaging communicator with strong written skills. Enthusiastic team player as well as happy to work alone
- Passionate about quality with a growth mindset of continually improving things
- Able to manage projects and enjoys working with new technologies
